Mechelle Annet Hernandez

+52 656-584-0102 | El Paso, Texas | mechelleher18@outlook.com | linkedin.com/in/mechelle-annet-hernández-350985380

Graduate student in Economics with research experience in applied microeconomics, spatial analysis, and social outcomes. Skilled in econometric analysis using Stata, Python and R, with experience supporting peer-reviewed research and literature synthesis. Proven ability to translate economic theory into practical, data-driven tools and solutions. Currently working as Intern Grid in the Resource Strategy Department at El Paso Electric Company.

EDUCATION

MS in Economics with Concentration in Data Analysis — Anticipated: 12/2026
The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) — Current GPA: 4.00/4.00

Dissertation: Does a Protestant Work Ethic Exist? A Micro-Level Analysis of Religious Beliefs and Economic Outcomes

Bachelor's Degree in Economics — Graduated: 12/2023
Autonomous University of Ciudad Juárez (UACJ) — GPA: 3.9 /4.00

Dissertation: "Spatial relationship between intentional homicides and the socioeconomic situation of the individual in Juarez City": 2010 and 2020", using Kriging techniques and ArcGIS.

Honors & Affiliations:

- Outstanding Academic Student (twice) awarded by the Autonomous University of Juarez City to students of the academic programs who have obtained the highest grades and with the highest academic load taken.
- Comprehensive Academic Student Recognition; Best GPA of the Economics graduating class
- 2nd Place – Tenth Meeting of Young Researchers of the State of Chihuahua

EXPERIENCE/RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Resource Strategy Analyst Intern — 06/2026- Present

- Expertise in Power BI and GIS tools
- Developed expertise in regional electricity markets
- Defining and underlying logic and structure of GIS based resource map

Master's Research Assistant — 01/2026 – 03/2026
Department of Social Work, The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) – El Paso, TX

- Conduct literature reviews supporting research on social and economic outcomes.
- Assist in drafting and editing peer-reviewed academic journal manuscripts.
- Perform quantitative and qualitative data analysis using statistical methods.
- Contribute to research design discussions and academic writing for interdisciplinary research projects.

Research methodology – Freelance — 12/2022 – Present

Executive Assistant – Operations Department — 03/2024 – 08/2025
International Boundary and Water Commission (IBWC), Mexican Section – Ciudad Juárez, Mexico

- Manage institutional information systems and operational documentation.
- Conduct policy analysis and review historical archives to identify institutional patterns.
- Managed and monitored budget-related activities within the Mexican public sector

Research Assistant 09/2022 – 02/2024
Colegio de Chihuahua (COLECH) – Ciudad Juárez, Mexico

- Participated in academic research projects involving data collection, literature review, and statistical analysis.
- Contributed to studies analyzing poverty conditions, human trafficking markets, and teenage pregnancy in Ciudad Juárez.
- Assisted in the development of a Georeferenced Database on Human Trafficking (BDGTP) for the State of Chihuahua.
- Participation on two occasions in the organization and management of the event "Meeting on Violence against Women", affiliated with Colegio de Chihuahua (COLECH) and the Autonomous University of Chihuahua (UACH).

PUBLICATIONS

(2025). Book Chapter: Why Are There More Divorces Than People Getting Married? An Economic Explanation, in M. Limas Hernandez M., & A. Limas Hernandez (Coord.), Degenerar el género. Claves juveniles para subvertir lugares e historias de violencias, desigualdades y exclusión en Ciudad Juárez. Comunidad Cientifica Publisher.https://doi.org/10.52501/cc.220

SKILLS

Statistical & Programming Software: Python, Stata, R/RStudio, GeoDa, ArcGIS
Research Methods: Econometric analysis, panel data methods, spatial analysis, quantitative and qualitative research methods, literature review, database construction
Covidence and EndNote

CAPABILITIES

• Teaching of the topic "Spatial relationship between intentional homicides and the socioeconomic situation of the individual in Juarez (2010 and 2020)" in the edition XI and XII of the economic research colloquium, by the UACJ.
• Participation in national essay contests.
• Communication and solution-finding skills.
• Translated economic and research theory into practical, data-driven tools and solutions.
• Presented research findings to academic and professional audiences
• Problem solving based on knowledge of statistical sources.
• Understanding local and national difficulties from a socioeconomic perspective.
• Critical thinking & detail oriented
• Proactive and with leadership skills to face unusual situations at work